Course Description

In addition to learning about NIBRS and crime reporting under this program, personal will understand their respective roles in the report writing. Reviewing, and coding process. Understanding NIBRS rules regarding how many reports to write, what needs to be in the report for accurate NIBRS coding, and the NIBRS definitions of crimes will help ensure your agency produces quality crime stat reports efficiently by minimizing report kickbacks for corrections. Report writing scenarios will be discussed along with hands on training in the supervisor review process. Writing good reports and producing accurate crime statistic is a team effort. Please note that this course is specific to NIBRS reporting. If your agency is still submitting reports, this course will help you gain a better understanding of NIBRS requirements and prepare for the transition to NIBRS reporting. This is an excellent “train –the trainer” opportunity.
