

Martin O'Malley, Governor
Anthony G. Brown, Lt. Governor
Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services
Gary D. Maynard, Secretary
Police and Correctional Training
Commissions
Charles W. Rapp, Executive Director

Volume 6, issue 1

September , 2011

“The fact of knowing how to read is nothing, the whole point is knowing what to read.”

~Jacques Ellul

(Retrieved from http://www.useful-information.info/quotations/library\_quotes.html#reading, accessed on 8/24/11)

What's New in Town?

- ITIP Toolkit: a Guide for Working with Curriculum Developers, U.S. Department of Justice, National Institute of Corrections, March 2011 (REPORT 685)

Subject Heading:

Curriculum Development—
Handbooks, manuals, etc.

Instructional Theory into Practice Toolkit is designed to provide guidance in working with curriculum developers who are designing and managing a curriculum development project plan. This publication provides thirteen tools to serve as aids in implementing the ITIP model.

Please stop in to sign this item out.

- Juvenile Justice Training Needs Assessment: A Survey of Law Enforcement prepared by the International Association of Chiefs of Police (REPORT 686)

Subject Headings:

Arson investigation—United States
Fire investigation—United States

---

Fun Reading Reminder

The library is home to a small collection of leisure-time reading, most of which has been donated by staff. If you are looking for a weekend read or just don't have time to stop at the public library or your neighborhood Barnes and Noble, consider browsing to see what we have here on our shelves. There are lots of James Patterson, Faye Kellerman, Jonathan Kellerman, and Harlan Coben works, and much, much more.

Taped to the side of the Fun Reading shelving unit are a numerical listing of the books in that part of the collection and an alphabetical listing of those items by author. Take a look and check one out!

---

Please Join Us...

The next opportunity to “brown bag it” in the library will be on Thursday, September 22, 2011 at noon. At that time, Mark Radcliff will speak to us on “Security Threat Group Awareness: Q & A.”

Please respond when the invitation comes your way. We hope that many of you will be able to attend this program.

